MEN'S CLUB BOCCE BALL COURT UPDATE:

The Men's Club Bocce Ball Courts and Horseshoe Pits are nearing completion. They will be hosting an open house following the Saturday, 5PM Mass and Sunday, 9:30AM Mass this weekend to share their progress and answer any questions. Please stop by to show your support.

The Men's Club is currently seeking donors to sponsor Dedication / Memorial Benches and Picnic Tables to place near the court area. Benches are $1,500. and picnic tables, $2,000. On each donated bench or table, a bronze plaque with up to 3 lines will be mounted. There are photos of the tables and benches over near the courts to look at. If interested talk to Rick Schuhriemen, (707) 217-9710.

We are also seeking persons willing to be part of a formation committee of a new Bocce Ball league of some sorts to begin play in May. We are wide open for ideas of how to make best use of this new facility and welcome the full community's participation. Those willing to help in forming a league should contact Rick Schuhriemen at (707) 217-9710 or rick.sch@comcast.net. A meeting of those interested will be scheduled soon to discuss our future plans. If you cannot be involved in a committee but want to play in a new league, please send a note with your contact info and experience and we will reach out to you as plans come together. No previous playing experience needed.

SPARE CHANGE FUNDRAISER FOR LENT:

Once again during Lent we will have our Spare Change Fundraiser. The money collected will go toward the completion of the children's residence at an orphanage in India that Fr. Jojo visits. The foundation and first floor of the building was completed with the money collected from last year's Spare Change fundraiser. Jars will be available in the Ushers Room for pickup after Ash Wednesday.

To hear those three little words, that's all I'd live for the rest of my days . . .
(as sung by the Rhythm Boys)

Are you the same person you were twenty or forty years ago? Yes and no! Frankly the person I was in 1970 was not the person I was in 1955 nor was the person I was in 1995 the person I am today. Changes happen that make one conclude you won't be exactly who you presently are this time next year. I mean will we ever again be the persons we were before this pandemic took over – will Sonoma as a town be the same? Things change.

Saint Paul says as much in today's second reading. Using the biblical character Adam as his example – Adam starts out as a "living being" but ends up "a life-giving spirit" – transitions from earthly to heavenly. Time after time things happen which can transform us into ever more knowledgeable, even expansive human beings.

Sometimes it takes a shock for such a change to happen. After I had finished my long training – from age fifteen to twenty-seven – to become ordained, I was sent on to graduate school; three more years of study! Naturally I dragged my feet. I handed in at the start of my first semester a shoddy term paper on a biblical topic.

Next day I received a phone call from my professor, Ed Siegman, a very strict fellow to whom I will forever be indebted. His message was brief: "If this is the effort you intend to make in my class, then why don't you just drop out and stop wasting my time and yours!" To be brief: I changed on the spot. It's not that I changed in any radical way but I was embarrassed enough to become a serious student. See what I mean?

My guess is that today's first reading may have been selected from the Hebrew Testament to set up the David of old as merciful in sparing the life of his pursuer King Saul. Actually that would be quite a change in David considering that he had no hesitancy to kill while fighting the Philistines or his rivals. I mean, people used to sing: "Saul has killed his thousands, but David his tens of thousands." Also, was it mercy that motivated David or his hope that Saul would return the favor and allow David to return – no longer outlawed – but a favored son-in-law? Self interest?

In Luke's reading today Christ would have us love in terms of the Greek term agape – not so much eros (sheer passion) or philia (mere friendship) but, as one scholar defines agape: a gracious, determined, and active interest in the true welfare of others, which is not deterred even when it gets responses like hatred, cursing and abuse. Nor is it limited by any calculation on the lover's part of any deserts or results he or she may expect in return but radiates out of the very nature of God as lover of all creation – with no exceptions. Nor does even that do the term justice. And it seems hard to find nowadays – at least in the media – where public life is a perpetual tennis match of potentially lethal consequences between the yeas and nays.
